Online Users Block

The Online users block shows which users are currently logged into the course. This can be an invaluable way to contact learners when you see them, or for learners to contact you or other learners when they are online as well.