SCORM

SCORM activities are identified by this icon.

SCORM activities are types of quizzes.

There are different SCORM activities, and they function differently. It is important to read the instructions when you have a different type of SCORM activity so that you understand what you must do.

SCORM Reading Activity (Sample from Citizenship Unit)

1. On the course page, click on a SCORM link.

A pop-up window appears.

2. If you have not attempted the activity before, click on the Enter button.

3. If you have completed the activity before, but wish to do it again for more practice, click the box next to Start a new attempt. This will start the activity from the first slide. If you do not check this box, you will see the activity from where you left off the previous attempt.
4. When you click Enter, the title screen of the SCORM activity appears.

Applying for Citizenship

About The Citizenship Test

5. Once loaded, the activity appears (in this case, a reading).
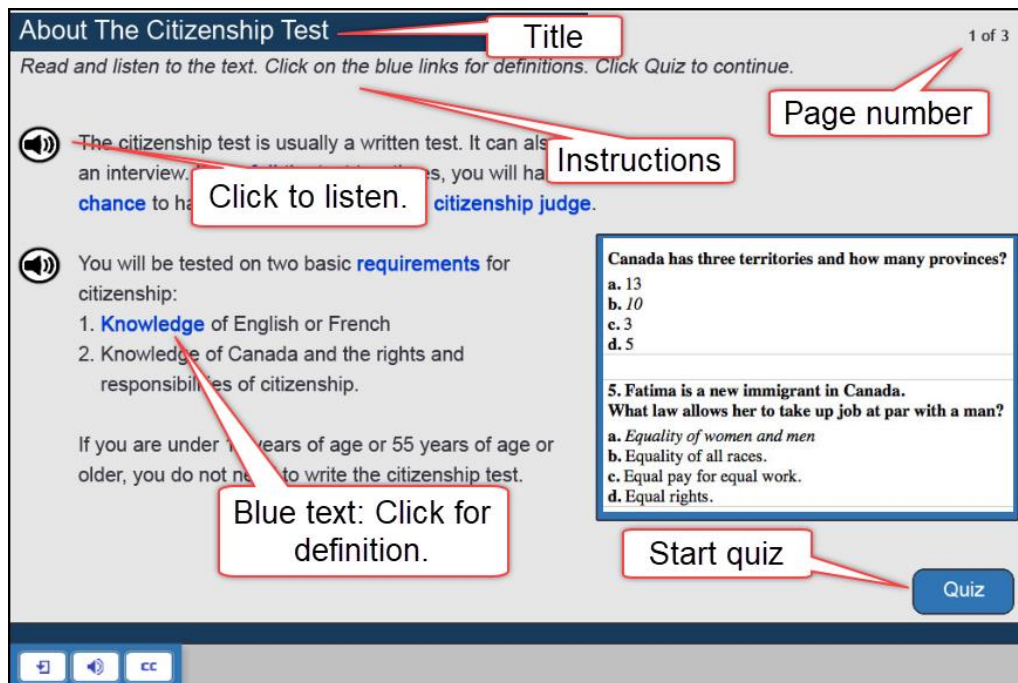

The title of the activity is at the top of the screen, e.g. "About the Citizenship Test"

The activity instructions are under the title.

On the right side, you can see how many pages are in the activity. (There are 3 in this activity.)

6. To listen to the reading, click on the speaker icon.

7. To the right of the sound icon is the reading text. Text appearing in blue are links to definitions.

8. Click on the blue word, "knowledge," and a definition pop up appears.

knowledge (n)
a complete understanding of a subject
9. After you read all of the text, click on the Quiz button to take the quiz.

Different question types can appear. They can be multiple-choice, true-false or drag and drop.

Multiple Choice (Sample from Citizenship Unit)

1. With multiple-choice questions, click on the best answer.

Understanding the Main Idea   2 of 3
Select the correct answer.

What is the main idea in this passage?

to describe what happens if you fail the citizenship test

to explain the details of the citizenship test to explain how people 55 years old and older don't have to take the citizenship test

< Back

If your answer is right, the word Correct appears on the screen.

Correct   to explain the details of the citizenship test

If your choice is incorrect, the words Try Again appear on the screen.

Try Again	to explain how people 55 years old and older don't have to take the citizenship test

Click on another choice until you get the correct answer.

2. Click on the Next> button to continue.

Drag & Drop Words

1. With drag and drop questions, drag the word to match the meaning.

2. When all of the matching answers are right, the word Correct appears on the screen.

Click on the Next> button to continue.

3. At the end of an activity, make sure to click on the Exit activity button to save your score. Then use the Breadcrumb menu to go back to your course.
Some SCORM activities might look different. In these activities, all the elements are shown on the same page.

The reading passage is to the left, and the questions are on the right side of the page. You can answer the questions one at a time, by choosing the best answer for each and clicking on the small arrow button to see the next question.

You can also see all the questions on the same page by clicking on the Show all questions button.

All questions will appear on the right half of the page.

e text and complete each question.

fail the test
je.

nough

ponsibilities

tizenship

1. The citizenship test is always written in English.
   (Select True or False.)

   A. [?] True

   B. [?] False

2. What happens if you fail the test twice?

   A. [?] You must write the test again.

   B. [?] You may not become a Canadian citizen.

   C. [?] You can have an interview with a citizenship judge.

3. Everyone who wants to become a Canadian Citizen must pass the written citizenship test.
   (Select True or False.)

   A. [?] True

Show questions one by one

If you prefer to see the questions individually, you can click on the Show questions one by one button.